The custom of appointing young lawyers to defend pauper criminals, says the San Antonio, Texas, Herald, received a backset the other day in our District Court. His Honor Judge Noonan had appointed two young lawyers to defend an old, experienced horse-thief. After inspecting his counsel for some time in silence, the prisoner rose in his place and addressed the bench:

"Air them to defend me?"

"Yes, sir," said his Honor.

"Both of them?" asked the prisoner.

"Both of them?" responded the Judge.

"Then I plead guilty," and the poor fellow took his seat and sighed heavily.

Officers well informed in relation to Japanese and Korean affairs regard the revolt in Korea as similar to that in Japan, when the treaty made with the United States was used by the insurgents to excite animosity, in order to enable them to seize possession of the Government.

In Aspinwall there have been many deaths from fever. The unknown dead are carted off and buried without coffins. The Mother Superior of the hospital, a French lady; the parish priest, an Italian; and the second in charge of the canal ward, a Frenchman named Montiel, have died. The chief of the canal is also sick.

"Wilt Thou" is the appropriate title of a fresh poem which wilts in the waste basket.

Pat (to Sandy)—"Shure, now, Sandy, yer a good-looking fellow; but your face spoils yez greatly. You've the foine open countenance, though." Sandy—"Ou, aye, man, and ye hae the fine open countenance yersel; but it's below the nose."

"What's the crowd about?" queried a stranger, as he noticed a stream of visitors going into a fashionable residence. "It is a silver wedding," replied his informant. "What's a silver wedding?" Why, a chap's been married twenty-five times, and he's a celebratin' of it."
